1 POLICY

- 1.01 Where an employee requests an accommodation for needs related to a disability, the Community Resource Centre will accommodate the employee to the point of undue hardship. Where an accommodation would cause undue hardship, the Community Resource Centre will implement the next best accommodation short of undue hardship.
- 1.02 The Community Resource Centre is required to and will comply with certain provisions contained in the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 ("AODA") and Part III — Employment Standards of the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation made under the AODA.
- 1.03 All accommodation requests will be taken seriously. No person will be penalized for making an accommodation request.

2 PURPOSE

- 2.01 The purpose of this Statement of Policy and Procedure is to state the Community Resource Centre's commitment to the prevention and removal of barriers to people with disabilities, to the accommodation of persons with disabilities and to establish processes by which persons with disabilities may request accommodation.

3 SCOPE

- 3.01 This policy applies to all locations in Ontario.

4 RESPONSIBILITY

- 4.01 Each supervisor is responsible for ensuring the principles outlined in this Statement of Policy and Procedure are adhered to throughout all organization activities.
- 4.02 The employee requesting an accommodation and their immediate supervisor are responsible for working together cooperatively with the goal of finding a reasonable accommodation and developing an accommodation plan.

5 DEFINITIONS

- 5.01 "Disability" means,
- (a) any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is present at birth or caused by bodily injury or illness and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes diabetes mellitus, epilepsy, a brain injury, any degree of paralysis, amputation, lack of physical co-ordination, blindness or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impediment, muteness or speech impediment, or physical reliance on a guide dog or other animal, or on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device;
 - (b) a condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability;

7 PROCEDURE

- 7.01 (a) During the recruitment process, the Community Resource Centre shall notify job applicants and the public about its commitment to accommodate those with disabilities, and shall advise those selected for an interview that accommodation is available upon request. If a selected applicant requests an accommodation, the Community Resource Centre shall consult with the applicant and provide or arrange for the provision of a suitable accommodation in a manner that takes into account the applicant's accessibility needs due to disability.
- (b) Successful applicants and employees shall be notified of the Community Resource Centre's policies regarding accommodating employees with disabilities as soon as practicable after their employment begins and whenever a change in policy takes place.
- 7.02 (a) Employees who wish or need to raise a potential accommodation issue shall do so by submitting a request for accommodation, preferably in writing, to their immediate supervisor. The request should:
- describe the limitations on the employee's ability to perform the duties of their position caused by the disability;
 - describe any accommodation(s) sought;
 - provide sufficient information to confirm the existence of a need for accommodation.
- (b) If an employee is under a program of medical treatment which requires the consumption of prescription drugs, including medical marijuana, or over-the-counter drugs, which are labelled or known to cause impairment, the employee is required to inform their supervisor about the program immediately so that the risk of impairment relative to the employee's safe job performance can be considered.
- 7.03 When necessary to facilitate the assessment and determination of a reasonable accommodation, the employee may be required to participate in the development of an accommodation plan and to provide relevant medical information to the Community Resource Centre. Employees seeking accommodation on the basis of disability are expected to provide their fullest cooperation in providing any information or medical assessments and participating in assessments relevant to determination of the accommodation request. The employee may request the participation of an employee representative in the development of the accommodation plan.

- 7.04 The supervisor and the Executive Director will jointly assess the accommodation issue in light of the information provided and the individual needs of the employee. During the assessment phase, the Community Resource Centre reserves the right to require further information, including relevant medical information or opinions that will assist the Community Resource Centre to determine if a reasonable accommodation can be achieved and how it can be achieved. The Community Resource Centre further reserves the right to require the employee to participate in a needs assessment by a qualified medical practitioner or other trained professional in order to assist in determining what accommodation is needed, how much it will cost, and how it can be provided.
- 7.05 The supervisor and Executive Director will jointly finalize a decision regarding the accommodation issue. The supervisor shall notify the employee, in writing or other format as required by the employee's disability, of the decision and the reason(s) for the decision.
- 7.06 If the employee is not satisfied with the decision regarding the request for accommodation, the employee may appeal the decision to the Executive Director for further review. The decision of the Executive Director shall be final and binding upon the parties.
- 7.07 Community Resource Centre shall ensure that the employee's personal medical information shall be kept confidential and will only be disclosed to those necessary in the assessment and development of the accommodation in accordance with SPP HR 5.07.ON — Personal Information Protection.
- 7.08 The Community Resource Centre shall provide individualized workplace emergency response information to disabled employees who require it, and to any person designated to assist the disabled employee, with the consent of the disabled employee, and shall review the individualized workplace response information upon the following events:
- (a) when the employee moves to a new location in the workplace;
 - (b) when the employee's overall accommodation needs are reviewed; and
 - (c) upon review of the Community Resource Centre's general emergency response policies.
- 7.09 Employees who are absent from work due to their disabilities shall participate in the development of a return to work process which includes the development of an individual accommodation plan. Employees who require an accommodation in order to return to work shall submit a request for accommodation in accordance with paragraph 7.02 above.
